

Thousands of kids and adults across the UK are going to be wearing odd socks on Monday 13 November and there's a really good reason why!

It's the start of Anti-Bullying Week.

Odd Socks Day is a national event all about celebrating what makes someone unique.

It's organised by the Anti-Bullying Alliance which is a group of organisations, charities and individuals who work together to try and stop bullying.

What's Odd Socks Day all about?

People are being encouraged to wear their favourite odd socks (yes, this means picking out a pair that don't match!).

It's to symbolise that we are all different and that children should be themselves, accepting of one another and celebrate difference.

Our School Council are organising our 'Odd Sock Day' for Monday 13th November 2023, this is optional, and no donation is required.

Let us celebrate what makes us... US!

Many Thanks, School Council.
